CRUSTY DEMONS CANCEL ORANGE EVENT

Crusty Demons World Touring today announced the unfortunate cancellation of the Orange show of the forthcoming Beyond The Apocalypse Tour of regional Australia, which was scheduled for 3 April.

“The restructure of the first part of the Beyond The Apocalypse Tour and other circumstances beyond our control unfortunately means it is not possible to do all the shows originally planned,” explained Paul Dainty, Chairman and CEO of Dainty Consolidated Entertainment, partners of Crusty Demons World Touring.

“Despite our best efforts to keep the Orange show as part of the tour we were left with too little lead time to effectively market the event to the people of the region,” Mr Dainty continued. “We fully intend to get back there with a huge Crusty Demons show in the very near future.”

Ticket holders for the Orange leg of the Beyond The Apocalypse Tour should contact TicketDirect for a full refund.

For tickets purchased by credit card, your card used for the purchase will automatically be refunded including booking/service fees.

For tickets purchased at an outlet with cash, please send your tickets to TicketDirect Australia, PO Box 170, Coffs Harbour, NSW, 2450 with your address or bank details for verification and we will then forward your refund in cheque form or EFT, including booking/service fees, to your designated address.

We hope to reschedule a show in Orange very soon, so please stay tuned to www.crusty.com for further updates.
